Hundred of NORWICH

Before 1066 there were 1320 burgesses in NORWICH. One of them was so much a lordship [man] of the King that he could not withdraw nor do homage without his permission. His name was {Edstan} <of Farningham>. This man had 18 acres of land and 12 [acres] of meadow, 2 churches in the Borough and one-sixth of a third. To one church belonged one messuage in the Borough and 6 acres of meadow. Roger Bigot holds this of the King's gift. The King and the Earl had the full jurisdiction and customary dues of 1238 [burgesses], [Archbishop] Stigand [had] the full jurisdiction and patronage over 50, and [Earl] Harold had the full jurisdiction and patronage over 32. One of these was so much a lordship [man] to him that he could not withdraw nor do homage without his permission. In total, they all had 80 acres of land and 20 1/2 acres of pasture. One of them was a woman, Stigand's sister, 32 acres of land. Amongst them all they had 1/2 mill and 1/4 of 1 mill and they have it still. Further [they had] 12 1/2 acres of meadow

<116b>

which Wihenoc [of Burley] took from them; now Reginald son of Ivo has them. Further [they had]

2 acres of meadow which were an adjunct of the church of All Saints;

Wihenoc [of Burley] also took them and now Reginald [son of Ivo] has them. A certain church of St Martin is also in the Borough, which [Archbishop] Stigand held before 1066; then 12 acres of land, now William of Noyers has it as part of [Archbishop] Stigand's Holding. [Archbishop] Stigand also held the church of St Michael to which are attached 112 acres of land, 6 [acres] of meadow and 1 plough. Bishop William holds this, but [it is] not of his Bishopric. The burgesses held 15 churches to which 181 acres of land and meadow belonged in alms. Before 1066, 12 burgesses held the church of the Holy Trinity, now the Bishop [holds it] of the King's gift. King William and the Earl had 180 acres of land. The Abbot had half of the church of St Laurence and 1 house from St Edmund's. This was all before 1066. Now there are 665 English burgesses in the Borough and they pay customary dues; also 480 smallholders who, because of their poverty, pay no customary dues. Also on the land which [Archbishop] Stigand held before 1066, 39 of the above-mentioned burgesses now dwell and on the same [land] there are 9 empty messuages. Also on the land of which [Earl] Harold had the jurisdiction, there are 15 burgesses and 17 empty messuages which are in the occupation of the castle premises. Also in the Borough there are 190 messuages empty in this [area] which was in the King's and the Earl's jurisdiction and 81 in the occupation of the castle. Further, there are in the Borough 50 houses from which the King does not have his customary dues; of these Reginald, Roger Bigot's man, [has] 2 <117a> houses and 2 messuages; Robert Baron 2 houses; Abba 1 house; Rabel [the engineer] 2 houses and 2 messuages; also 2 messuages which 2 females hold; Ansculf Unlike 1 house; Theobald, the Abbot of St E[dmund's] man, 1 house; Burghard [of Mendlesham] 1 house; Wala 1 house; William, Hervey de Vere's man, 1 house; Mainard the watchman 1 house; the lesser burgesses 1 house; Hervey de Vere 1 house; Ralph the bowman 2 houses and 1 messuage; Hereberd the ditcher 3 houses; Roger of Poitou 2 houses; Mainard, the Abbot of St Benedict's [of Holme] man, 1 house; Peter, the Abbot of St E[dmund's] man, 1 messuage; Everwin a burgess 1 house; Baldwin 1 house; William an Englishman 1 house; Gerard the watchman 1 house; Robert the lorimer 1 messuage; Hildebrand the lorimer 1 house; Godwin a burgess 1 house; William, Hermer [of Ferrers]'s man, 1 house; Gilbert the watchman 1 house; Fulbert a certain priest of Hermer [of Ferrers] 1 house; Walter 1 house; Reginald son of Ivo 1 house; Richard of St Clair 1 house; Hugh, W[illiam] of Ecouis's man, 1 house. Also the Bishop's men 10 houses, and in the Bishop's own court 14 messuages which King William gave to [Bishop] E[rfast] for the principal seat of the Bishopric; Gilbert the Bowman 1 house and 2 messuages; William of Ecouis 1 house and [another] Mainard 1 house; the Abbot of Ely, 1 messuage. Also in the Borough the burgesses hold 43 chapels.

Before 1066 all this town paid £20 to the King and £10 to the Earl, and besides this except 21s 4d [to certain] prebendaries, 6 sesters of honey, 1 bear and 6 dogs for the bear;
<117b>

now £70 by the

King's weight and a premium to the Queen of 100s at face value, 1 goshawk and £20 blanchied to the Earl and 20s premium at face value to G[odwin] [uncle of Earl Ralph]. Also Bishop Almer held the church of St Simon and St Jude before 1066, later [Bishop] Herfast, now [Bishop] William [holds]; 3/4 of 1 mill, 1/2 acre of meadow and 1 messuage are attached to this and it is not of the Bishopric but of Bishop Almer's patrimony. In the Borough [Bishop William] has 2 acres of meadow [which are] of the Bishopric.

Value 20s.

Of the King's land in THETFORD beyond the water towards NORFOLK

there is 1 league of land in length and 1/2 in width of which the King has 2 parts moreover the third part of these two parts lies in the Earldom. R[oger] Bigot [has] the third part of the above-mentioned league; all this land is half arable, the other [half] in pasture. On this land the King has 1 plough, 3 smallholders, 1 slave and 1 horse. Also of 2 mills the King has 2 parts and the Earl the third [part]. The King also has 2 parts of a third mill and of these 2 parts the Earl has a third. Of the other part towards SUFFOLK there is 1/2 a league of land in length and 1/2 in width; a third part of this land is for the Earldom; meadow, 4 acres. All this land is arable; 4 ploughs can plough it. Moreover in the Borough there were 943 burgesses before 1066; of these the King has all the customary dues. 36 of these same men were so much lordship [men] of King Edward that they could not be anyone else's men without the King's permission. All the others could be anyone else's men but always the customary dues remained the King's except for heriot. Now there are 720 burgesses and 224 empty messuages; 21 of these burgesses have 6 carucates and 60 acres which they hold from the King. It is in St Edmund's jurisdiction. Besides this 2 burgesses have 1 mill.

Value of all the above-mentioned before 1066 £20 at face value and for the Earl's use £10 at face value; now it pays £50 by weight to the King and to the Earl £20 blanch and £6 at face value. Now it also pays to the King £40 from the mint; always 16s to 2 prebendaries. Before 1066 it also paid 4 sesters of honey and 40d, 10 goat skins and 4 ox hides.

The Abbot of St Edmund's has 1 church in the city and 1 house [which are] free. The Abbot of Ely [has] 3 churches and 1 house [which are] free and 2 messuages by custom in one [of which] is his house.

The Bishop also [has] 20 houses [which are] free, 1 mill and 1/2 church; R[oger] Bigot [has] 1 house [which is] free, 1 monastery and 2 smallholders [belonging] to the monastery.

List 17

[ANNEXATION OF ROGER BIGOT]

NFK 66,71

The Hundred and a Half of `FREEBRIDGE'

In FLITCHAM Roger Bigot holds 10 free men, at 80 acres which Ranulf son of Walter holds. Meadow, 6 1/2 acres; 2 ploughs.

Value 12s. His predecessor had the patronage only of these and [Archbishop] Stigand the jurisdiction and patronage over 1 and the jurisdiction over the others.

[Annexation of Roger Bigot]

NFK 66,72

Hundred of WAYLAND

In GRISTON 4 free men, 26 acres which R[anulf] [son of Walter] also holds from R[oger] [Bigot].

Value 4s. In this Roger's predecessor had nothing except the patronage, the King and the Earl the jurisdiction.

[Annexation of Roger Bigot]

NFK 66,73

In THOMPSON 1 free man, 15 acres. Meadow, 1 acre. Then 1/2 plough, <277b>

now 2 oxen.

Value 2s. The same R[anulf] [son of Walter] also holds. The King and the Earl [have] the jurisdiction.

[Annexation of Roger Bigot]

NFK 66,74

[SHROPHAM Hundred]

In HOCKHAM 1 free man in patronage only, 8 acres.

[Annexation of Roger Bigot]

NFK 66,75

In SNETTERTON a free man, 5 acres and 3 roods. 2 oxen.

Value 16d. Of this [Roger Bigot's predecessor had] the patronage only. The jurisdiction is in Buckenham. Ralph son of Herlewin holds from R[oger] [Bigot].

[Annexation of Roger Bigot]

NFK 66,76

Hundred of 'GUILTCROSS'

In [Great] SNAREHILL 1 free man, 15 acres, as part of the Holding of Thorsten of Thetford. His predecessor had the patronage only there the jurisdiction [is] in the King's [manor of] Kenninghall.

Value 15d.

[Annexation of Roger Bigot]

NFK 66,77

In [Great] SNAREHILL 3 free men in patronage and fold-rights. All other jurisdiction [is] in Kenninghall. They have 20 acres.

Always 1/2 plough.
Value 20d. Thorsten [of Thetford] holds this.
[Annexation of Roger Bigot]

NFK 66,78

[`WEST FLEGG' Hundred]

In THURNE 1 free man under the patronage only of St Benedict's [of Holme], 43 acres. He was an outlaw. Because Alwy [of Thetford] made him an outlaw, he has half the land in Roger Bigot's Holding.

Meadow, 9 acres. Always 1 plough.

Value then 3s, now 4[s].

[Annexation of Roger Bigot]

NFK 66,79

In SOMERTON 1 free man of [Earl] Harold's, 30 acres.

1 smallholder.

[Meadow], 1 1/2 acres; 1/2 plough.

Roger's reeve holds this and pays 2 {orae} every year to the King's reeve under Roger Bigot. But it did not belong [to the reeve] and Roger did not know.

[Annexation of Roger Bigot]

NFK 66,80

`HENSTEAD' Hundred

In BRAMERTON Aitard [of Vaux] holds from Roger 16 acres which a free woman under the patronage of Edric [of Laxfield] held. Earl R[alph] [Wader] held when he forfeited so the Hundred testifies, and later Robert Blunt in the King's hands, and now Aitard [of Vaux], a man under the patronage of Roger Bigot, holds it since R[alph] forfeited. The Hundred testifies that it is so and the woman herself offers judicial ordeal that it is true as the Hundred testifies. Aitard [of Vaux] counters this. Under her there are two whole free men and a half, at 6 acres.

Meadow, 1 1/2 acres. Between them all always 1/2 plough.

Value then 2s; now 4[s].

[Annexation of Roger Bigot]

NFK 66,81

In BIXLEY 1 free man under the patronage of Aslak <of {Rodenhala}> with a half-a-free-man before 1066, at 17 acres.

Always 1/2 plough.

1 villager; 1 smallholder.

Roger Bigot has custody of him in the King's hands so he says and he pays tribute in the Hundred. But the Hundred testifies that Godric the steward held under the King as part of Earl R[alph] [Wader]'s Holding for 1 year before he forfeited and later for 2 years of the King's gift. Against this Roger Bigot offers to prove the contrary by judicial ordeal or by battle. Godric claims this [land] with half <278a>

of the land which is in Roger Bigot's return. Godric the steward acquired this for 1/2 carucate of land.

[Annexation of Roger Bigot]

NFK 66,82

In PORINGLAND 1 free man under the patronage of Edwin before 1066. Later Godric [the steward] [held] and afterwards Alfred on account of a forfeiture. He had quit himself of that forfeiture as the Hundred testifies but by order of the Bishop of Bayeux Roger Bigot kept [the land] in the King's hands and still does so. He holds 15 acres. Then 1/2 plough, now 2 oxen.

Value always 16d.

[Annexation of Roger Bigot]

NFK 66,83

DISS Half-Hundred

In OSMONDISTON, Hugh of Corbon under Roger Bigot annexed a half of 1 free man, with 10 acres of land and part of a close. Earl R[alph] [Wader] held this land when he forfeited. Later when it was in the King's hands, Hugh of Corbon who now holds, annexed it. Ralph of Fougères holds the manor but he does not have this part. Value always 2s.

[Annexation of Roger Bigot]

NFK 66,84

This is the Hundred of `EAST FLEGG'

In FILBY 51 acres; 1 free man before 1066. Then Alwy [of Thetford] had the patronage only of this man's wife and the wife had nothing out of this land. Earl R[alph] [Wader] had possession of this land when he forfeited. Robert Blunt held it at tribute in the King's hands. Later the same Alwy, R[oger] Bigot's predecessor, annexed it under Godric [the steward], and his son Stanhard [son of Alwy] held it. Whereof Roger Bigot has given pledge and does not claim this land as part of his Holding. Now Godric has custody of it in the King's hands. There is on that land 1 plough; meadow, 1 1/2 acres.

Value 5s.
[Annexation of Roger Bigot]

NFK 66,85
Hundred of HUMBLEYARD
In SWARDESTON a half-a-free-man of whom Godric [the steward]'s predecessor had the patronage only before 1066. The same Godric had possession when Earl R[alph] [Wader] forfeited. Lately Ralph of Noron held him. He has 15 acres.
Half a smallholder.
1/2 plough; meadow, 1/2 acre.
He paid 10s to Godric and lately he paid 12s to Ralph [of Noron]. [[Earl] Ralph] kept back this man from Godric, and another half-man likewise, at 5 acres.
Value 12d.
[Annexation of Roger Bigot]

NFK 66,86
'DEPWADE' Hundred
In HAPTON 1 free [man], 15 acres.
Value 32d.
Herbert, Roger Bigot's chamberlain, held this man.
Count Eustace's men claim to him as part of his Holding and he is not <278b>
of his Holding; now he is in the King's hands. Herbert has given pledge of this at 16d which he had.
[Annexation of Roger Bigot]

1/2 [park]; value 6d.
[Land of King William of which Aelfric Wand has charge]

SUF 1,102

Earl Gyrth held SHOTLEY; 2 1/2 carucates of land and 1 acre, value 2d, as 1 manor before 1066.
Then 12 villagers, now 6; always 2 smallholders. Then 4 slaves, now 1.
Then 2 ploughs in lordship, later and now 1; then 4 men's ploughs, later and now 1; 4 ploughs could be restored.
Meadow, 4 acres. 1 cob, 40 sheep.
To this manor [of [East] Bergholt] before 1066 belonged 210 Freemen, now there are only 119; they have 22 1/2 carucates of land, less 30 acres. 42 smallholders.
Then 29 ploughs, now 27. Meadow, 24 1/2 acres.
Two churches with 62 acres.
Of the men who still dwell in this manor, [Earl] Harold only had patronage over four before 1066; Wulfnoth, Estmund, Aelfric and Wihtric [of {Carlewuda}]. And [Earl] Gyrth, Harold's brother, had patronage over two:
Mann and Alfgeat. All the others were under the patronage of other barons before 1066. [Robert] Malet's predecessor [Edric of Laxfield] had patronage over 1, and Robert son of Wiuhomarch [over] 4. However, Harold always had the jurisdiction.

<287b>

[Land of King William of which Aelfric Wand has charge]

SUF 1,103

The above-mentioned manor, that is [East] BERGHOLT, with what belonged to it and with the jurisdiction of the Hundred and a Half, paid £24 before 1066. And [Bentley and Shotley] the two above-mentioned manors of [Earl] Gyrth's which have been added to this revenue paid £9 then. And when Robert Malet had [it] all it paid, in total, £60 by weight, and £8 at face value as a premium; and he paid as much thence to Roger Bigot, as the reeve himself says. Roger says that it paid 40s more at face value, and one mark of gold, but Aelfric the reeve denies this; Roger is willing to prove [it] through those men who were [present] at his agreements. Now this Aelfric [Wand] pays £60 by weight, and holds from the King. He recalls the King as guarantor of this, as he says himself; he also says that there does not remain in it what makes that profit.

Aubrey de Vere holds 1 Freeman of [East] BERGHOLT with 4 acres; value 12d. He holds him as of Aldham.

The free men who before 1066 belonged in the jurisdiction of [East] Bergholt each freely gave only 4d a year to the reeve and paid suit, as the law required. When Roger Bigot had the sheriffdom previously, his officers fixed that they should pay £15 a year, which they did not do before 1066. When Robert Malet had the sheriffdom, his officers increased them to £20. When Roger Bigot had them again they gave £20 likewise. Now Aelfric Wand holds them, with such a customary due as they were [liable for] before 1066.

ROGER BIGOT HAS CHARGE OF THIS, in the King's hands.

SUF 1,122a

Of the Half-Hundred of IPSWICH and of the Borough, Queen Edith had 2 parts before 1066, and Earl Gyrth [had] the third part.

[Lands of King William in Ipswich of which Roger Bigot has charge]

SUF 1,122b

The Queen also had in her lordship a grange, to which belonged 4 carucates of land before 1066, and now likewise.

Of this land, 12 free men, who live on other land of their own, have always held 80 acres, for the King's service and customary due.

And there are 10 other men, smallholders, who do not have land of their own, but live on 86 acres of the above-mentioned land. Also, 2 burgesses belong to the lordship of the above-mentioned grange; they pay 6d of customary dues to the King.

Then 2 ploughs in lordship, later the same, now 1.

Then 3 cattle, now 8; then 2 cobs, now 1; then 14 goats, now 7; then 40 sheep, now 13.

The villagers have always had 6 ploughs.

This land has 8 furlongs in length and the same in width; it pays nothing of the King's tax.

[Lands of King William in Ipswich of which Roger Bigot has charge]

SUF 1,122c

Before 1066 there were 538 burgesses in the Borough, who paid the customary due to the King, and had 40 acres of land. Now however there are 110 burgesses who pay the customary due and 100 poor burgesses who cannot pay anything to the King's tax, apart from 1 penny [assessed] on their heads. In total, they likewise have 40 acres of land.

And in the Borough, there have been laid waste 328 messuages, which paid a levy to the King's tax before 1066.

In THURLESTON, in Claydon Hundred, Godric [has] 1 church, St Botolph's, with 1 acre.

[Lands of King William in Ipswich of which Roger Bigot has charge]

SUF 1,122f

Thorkil and Edric have been holding 1 church, St Laurence's, with 12 acres; it was half a year at the feast of St John. Leoffled, a free woman, held this church before 1066; Count Alan claims it as of Earl Ralph [Wader]'s Holding, and he recalls Ivo Tallboys as [its] deliverer. Aeschere <of Ipswich> [has] 1 church, St Peter's, with 1 acre.

Godric [has] a church, St Stephen's, with 1 acre.

However Thorkil and Edric recall Roger the sheriff as guarantor, saying that they had the church through him, and Roger was such a guarantor for it as any sheriff would rightly have been before 1066.

SUF 1,122g

All this paid £15 and 6 sesters of honey before 1066; 4s for the customary dues and 8s to the prebendaries.

Roger the sheriff gave the whole [of it] at a revenue for £40 at the feast of St Michael. Later on he could not have the tribute, and because of this he pardoned 60s; now it pays £37. And the moneyers paid £4 a year before 1066 for the mint; now they ought to pay £20, but of four years' [money] they have paid only £27. The Earl has always had the third part.

When the Hundred pays £1 in tax, then 60d goes from here for the monks' supplies; but this is from the town as [it was] before 1066 and yet it is the same now although it is enclosed in a larger circuit of land which then was ploughed and sown [but] where [now] there are 30 priests, deacons and clerics, and 28 nuns and poor persons, who pray daily for the King and all Christian people. [Also] 80 less 5 bakers, brewers, tailors, washers, shoemakers, robemakers, cooks, porters, bursars; all these daily serve St [Edmund's], the Abbot and the brethren. Besides these, there are 13 [men] on the reeve's land who have their houses in the same town; under them, 5 smallholders. [Also] now 34 men-at-arms, including French and English; under them, 22 smallholders. Now in all [there are] 342 houses in lordship on land [which was] St Edmund's arable before 1066.
